

TERROR FILMS Teams with POV HORROR

(Tuesday, April 16, 2019) – TERROR FILMS is hellbent on ensuring that you can find their films literally everywhere. On the heels of their recent partnership announcement with AVOD streaming site Popcornflix, the digital indie genre distributor is at it again as they prepare to launch seven of their found footage films on the popular subscription streaming service POV HORROR.

The release will include a mixture of titles from the wildly successful Hell House LLC to the politically charged Savageland and the stalker-esque thriller The Documentary. The slate will also highlight films from international filmmakers such as the Blaire Witch spoof The Claire Wizard Thesis (from Australian filmmaker Ishak Issa), the critically acclaimed Be My Cat: A Film for Anne (from Romanian filmmaker Adrian Țofei), the paranormal thriller The Follower (from French filmmaker Kévin Mendiboure), and the never-before-seen Documenting the Witch Path (from Swedish filmmaker Carl Sundström). The Official Poster has been included here with the Official Trailer set to release soon. The documentary follows three young filmmakers in search of a haunted lake where innocent women accused of witchcraft were drowned in the 17th Century

"We are thrilled to be working with POV Horror. In this very competitive market, we rely on platforms such as POV Horror to help us continue to grow our digital footprint and introduce our ever-growing and diverse library of horror films to new audiences," stated Terror Films President Joe Dain.

POV HORROR will release Savageland on April 28th, followed by more TERROR FILMS horror all summer long.
